Melbourne, Australia – A local business this week completed a corporate restructure to facilitate future growth.

Founded by Philip Chau, Uno PC was birthed as a IT Advisory and Business Management & Consulting firm based in Adelaide and Melbourne. Over time, it became apparent that these two services could complement each other, but could not operate be side-by-side.

To facilitate growth in the Business Management & Consulting arm, and to allow talented advisors to join the team, this business unit needed to be demerged.

Welcome Plan and Execute Consulting Group (PLEXCO). PLEXCO will focus on working with businesses to drive growth. Our team of consultants will specialise in all facets of business including management, operations, marketing, digital online, legal, and finance.

“We are excited to also welcome on board our international consultants who will be able to work with those businesses that have a global model. In particular, our reach to San Francisco could benefit businesses trying to seek out connections in Silicon Valley”, said Philip Chau, Founder of Uno PC and Co-Founder of PLEXCO.
